

This unique team of physicians has been treating sport injuries for over 30 years. Athletes at the grammar school, high school, college, recreational and professional levels are ALL treated as if they were pros in order to get them back to the sports they love.

Sports medicine has come a long way. With medical advances in PRP (platelet rich plasma) and MIS (minimally invasive surgery) patient care continues to improve. Hudson Valley Bone and Joint Surgeons treat individuals with the latest advances in the field and your care and treatment are tailored to return you — as quickly as possible — to your optimal performance!

Clients include the NY Rangers, Westchester Flames, Manhattan College and the College of Mt. St. Vincent.

Meet the Physicians

Dr. Maddalo joined the team after completing orthopedic training at Lenox Hill Hospital in 1986. During this training he was involved in the care of the players from the NY Cosmos, the New York Rangers and the NY Jets gaining him vast experience in the diagnosis and treatment of sports injuries. He has been the Assistant Team Physician of the New York Rangers since 1986 and, along with Drs. Cavaliere and Curran serves as a team physician for the Westchester Flames as well as Manhattan College and College of Mt. St. Vincent.

Anthony Maddalo, MD, Christine Curran, DO and Gregg Cavaliere, MD

Dr. Cavaliere has focused on sports medicine since 1993 with particular emphasis on the knee and shoulder. As a resident at Lenox Hill Hospital he treated athletes from the New York Rangers, New York Knicks and the New York Jets.

Together with Dr. Maddalo he has perfected the exacting techniques of closed arthroscopic shoulder cuff repair and stabilizations which have earned him wide acclaim. He is frequently named to the Best Doctors in New York by New York Magazine and serves as Chief of Orthopedics at Phelps Memorial Hospital.

Dr. Curran brings her passion and experience in sports and internal medicine to the practice. She completed her Sports Medicine Fellowship at Pitt County Memorial Hospital-East Carolina University in Greenville, NC in 2010. Together with Drs. Maddalo and Cavaliere, she serves as team physician to major area teams including The Westchester Flames Soccer Team, Manhattan College Basketball and College of Mt. St. Vincent's Basketball Team.

Over four decades of combined experience and the latest technical and innovative advances in sports medicine make it possible for Hudson Valley Bone and Joint Surgeons to customize their approach for each patient.
